

FOSTER & GANE

A cherry wood tilt-top tripod table by Hugh Birkett (1919 - 2002)

£2,400

REF: 5434

Height: 68 cm (26.8")

Diameter: 69.5 cm (27.4")

Description

The facettted revolving tilt-top on a birdcage above a turned column on three shaped legs.

Stamped and gilded 'H.B. 1984' underside of the tripod.

England, 1984

Provenance: Once part of the private collection of Robert Kime (1946 - 2022)

Hugh Birkett (1919 - 2002) was an important proponent of the craft revival in England and created largely private commissions from his workshop in Moreton-in-Marsh, embracing the ethics and practices of the Cotswold School which was such an inspiration on his work.