

An Art Nouveau iridescent glass and pewter mounted vase, the pewter by Friedrich van Houten & Sohn and the glass attributed to Wilhelm Kralik & Sohn

£850

REF: 6038

Height: 12.5 cm (4.9")

Diameter: 15.5 cm (6.1")

Description

The mould-blown bulbous glass vase within a pewter mount with handles.

The base stamped with 2193 (the design number), a crown (the maker's mark) and shield the maker's pewter hallmarking mark).

Austria, circa 1905

Friedrich van Hauten & Sohn were prominent retailers and decorators of glass, porcelain and ceramics in Bonn, Germany. Founded in the early 1800s, by the turn of the century they were associated with the highest quality Art Nouveau glass.