

A large Arts & Crafts brass and copper paraffin lamp attributed to
Gustave Serrurier-Bovy (1858 - 1910)

£5,800

REF: 4892

Height: 72 cm (28.3")

Diameter: 30 cm (11.8")

Description

The waisted brass and copper frame supporting a pierced brass shade inlaid with green cabochons and lined with a gingham linen. With the original oil burner and Bohemian glass shade.

Belgium, circa 1905

Serrurier-Bovy was an architect and designer. Influenced by the Arts & Crafts movement, he was one of the creators of Art Nouveau. Several pieces of his furniture are in the collection of the Musee d'Orsay, Paris.