

A pair of Regency oak bobbin-back chairs in the manner of Jeffry Wyatt (1766 - 1840)

£1,450

REF: 5793

Height: 94 cm (37")

Description

Each square back with spiral-turned vertical splats and faceted tapering legs.

England, circa 1815

The chairs are similar to those in a set of 12 that were supplied in 1814 for the 8th Duke of Bedford for Endsleigh, Devon. Sold at Christie's, Property from two Ducal Collections, 21 September 2004, lot 875.

A pair of stools with similar faceted tapering legs attributed to Wyatt sold at Christie's, Millden - A Scottish Lodge, 20 January 2005.